Short Biography

The King's Men is the close-harmony group formed from the Choral Scholars of the Choir of King's College, Cambridge. As Choral Scholars they follow the daily routine of Chapel services throughout term, as well as undertaking a busy concert and recording schedule in the vacations.

The Choir is, of course, most famous for the broadcast of A Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols on radio each Christmas, and its companion programme, Carols from King's, on BBC television.

The King's Men, however, functions separately from the main Choir, and is run by the current members of the group. It performs regularly around Britain, and has performed as far afield as North America, Australia and China.

Plans for 2018–19 include tours of England in March and July, recording a new Digital-EP, and various concerts throughout the United Kingdom.
